MRS. SARAH PUTT USES REVOLVER TO END HER LIFE

Commits Suicide While Lying in Bed

Mrs. Sarah E. Putt, aged sixty-seven years, a resident of Garrett for forty years, committed suicide by sending a bullet through her brain Thursday. She was found dead in bed at her home on Covell street about eight hours after she had ended her life.

Mrs. Putt's husband, Charles E. Putt, with whom she had lived forty-seven years, died a year ago and since that time she had lived alone. One son, William F. Putt, a locomotive engineer, resides on North Randolph street, while the other, Edward F. Putt, lives on a farm two miles northeast of Garrett.

Considering her advanced age, Mrs. Putt seemed to be in good health. A granddaughter, Sylvia Quinn, called at her grandmother's home Wednesday evening about 4:30 and remained for an hour and a half. Mrs. Putt complained of her heart. She said she had been working hard, having cleaned up the three rooms of the downstairs. As far as known, the granddaughter was the last person to see Mrs. Putt alive.

At the inquest conducted by Coroner H. A. Hinklin, William F. Putt stated that Mrs. Jacob R. Putt, a sister of the deceased who resides two miles north of Garrett, telephoned him about 3:45 Thursday afternoon and asked him if his mother was at his house. Mr. Putt replied that she was not. Then he and his son-in-law, Trevor Drake, and Mrs. Margaret Trapp went to his mother's home. They found all the doors locked from the inside. Looking through the window, they saw Mrs. Putt lying on the bed with her knees sticking up.

Covers Drawn Over Head

Mr. Putt then went to the west kitchen window and gained entrance to the house by breaking the glass. He opened the kitchen door and Mr. Drake and Mrs. Trapp also entered the house. They went to the bedroom and found Mrs. Putt in bed with all the covers pulled over her head. Mr. Putt pulled the covers down and saw that his mother was dead.

Dr. Klingler and Undertaker Hinklin were called. Mrs. Hinklin started to uncover the body and she found a 32 calibre revolver beside the body. It contained one empty cartridge.

It is believed Mrs. Putt had been dead since early in the forenoon, as a lamp was still burning. The old revolver she used had been in the house many years. Mrs. Putt placed one cartridge in it, lay down on the bed, drew the covers over her head, placed the revolver to her right temple, and pulled the trigger. It is evident that death was instantaneous. The bullet passed through her head and fractured the skull above the left temple. She had $281.68 on her person when she was found.

Mrs. Putt was born in Fairfield township, DeKalb county. Her maiden name was Sarah E. Gettz. She and Mr. Putt were married May 13, 1874, and they lived at Hudson before moving to Garrett. Mr. Putt for many years was an employe of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and retired on a pension in 1920.

Mrs. Putt is survived by the two sons and one sister.

Funeral services was held at Union church Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the Rev. W. M. Elliott of the Garrett Reformed-Presbyterian church officiating. Burial was made beside the body of Mrs. Putt's husband in Union cemetery.

ENGINEER WILLIAM PUTT BADLY BURNED BY HOT OIL

Engineer William Putt was badly burned about the face and hands at 1:30 o'clock Thursday morning when the lubricator filling plug on engine 4189 blew out, throwing a stream of hot oil onto him.

The engine was being made ready to pull fast freight No. 97 to Chicago when the accident occurred. It was about ready to leave what is known as the "ready" track near the round house. When the plug let go Mr. Putt jumped and in doing so injured his back. He was taken to Sacred Heart hospital. Dr. Klingler was called to attend him and the physician had not been able to determine Thursday morning just how serious the burns are. No one was in the cab of the engine except Mr. Putt when the accident occurred.

Mrs. William Putt and son, Collis, left Wednesday for Dodge, N. D., where they will stay for an indefinite length of time in the hope of benefiting Collis health. He was a patient in Sacred Heart hospital four months following an attack of pneumonia. On their way to Dodge, Mrs. Putt and son will visit relatives at Mandan, N. D.

GARRETT BOY ON SLED IS STRUCK BY AN AUTOMOBILE

Billy Putt, 5, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Putt of North Randolph street, Garrett, while playing near the home of his grandparents Friday collided with an automobile bearing Illinois license plates, the occupants being a man, his wife and small child. The Putt boy was on his sled and he struck the rear wheel of the automobile. The car was turned around by the collision and hit a telephone pole on the west side of the road. Billy sustained a gash in his right thigh and a cut on his forehead. He was taken to the home of his grandparents and a physician was called. His condition is not regarded as serious.

MRS. W. F. PUTT IS INSTANTLY KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Funeral at Methodist Church Today

Mrs. Minnie Putt, 61, wife of Wm. F. Putt, a Baltimore & Ohio passenger engineer, met instant death Friday night at 7:10 o'clock when she was struck in front of her home on North Randolph street in Garrett by an automobile driven by Philip Fluke of Richland township, northwest of Garrett.

She was rolled over and over on the pavement of road 27 by the wheels of the car. Her skull was fractured, her chest crushed and one leg broken. A daughter, Mrs. Elmer DePew, who lives across the road from her parents' home, heard the crash without knowing at the time that her mother was the victim and she was the first to reach her mother's side.

Mrs. DePew had asked her mother to go with her to revival services at the Christian Union church, northwest of Garrett. At first Mrs. Putt said she would not go, but later changed her mind. She hastened to get ready and hurried from her house to get to her daughter's home before the latter left for church.

Fluke was driving south into Garrett alone. He says the speed of his machine was 20 or 25 miles an hour and so far as known there was no other car nearby. Why Mrs. Putt stepped onto the pavement with the automobile approaching will never be known, but the car may have been closer than she thought. Fluke told Coroner B. O. Shook that when he saw Mrs. Putt his car was only a dozen feet from her. He says he applied his brakes and tried to avert an accident, but could not do so. The left fender and headlight struck Mrs. Putt. She was thrown to the pavement and apparently was run over by one of the wheels. She was rolled along ten to fifteen feet before the rear wheel passed over her. Fluke stopped a short distance farther on.

Identifies Her Mother

"As I stepped from my house with my son, Jack, I heard a crash and ran to the road to see what had happened," Mrs. DePew said. "I saw a form in the center of the pavement and when I reached it I found it was my mother." Mrs. Putt was lifeless. Mrs. DePew screamed and then swooned. Her daughter, Mrs. Irvin Hilkert, and the latter's husband ran from the house. Mr. Putt also was called and he and Fluke and Hilkert carried Mrs. Putt into her own home.

Final rites will be conducted at the Garrett M. E. church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. B. H. Franklin, the pastor, will officiate and interment will be made in Union cemetery, northwest of Garrett.

Mrs. Putt's maiden name was Harvey and she was born Dec. 30, 1875, a mile and a half south of Garrett. She and Mr. Putt were married June 16, 1895, and they went to housekeeping in Garrett at once. Surviving besides the widower are five children, Mrs. Chas. Quinn of 520 North Randolph street, Garrett, Douglas Putt of North Randolph street, Garrett, Collis Putt and Mrs. Trevor Drake of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. DePew. There are also seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Putt was a member of the Garrett Methodist Episcopal church, the Willing Workers Sunday school class, the auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, the auxiliary to the American Legion, the auxiliary to the Baltimore and Ohio Veteran Employes Association and the Eagle Ladies club.

HOLDS FLUKE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR PUTT ACCIDENT

Coroner Frees Auto Driver from Blame

In a verdict filed with County Clerk Carl Walter Monday, Dr. B. O. Shook of Spencerville, DeKalb county coroner, absolved Philip Fluke of Richland township, of blame for the death of Mrs. Wm. F. Putt of Garrett, which resulted when his automobile struck her Friday night.

Fluke testified that he was driving into Garrett from the north on road 27 at a speed of twenty to twenty-five miles an hour and near the north end of Randolph street he suddenly saw Mrs. Putt in front of his car, only twelve or fifteen feet away. He said he applied the brakes, but that he could not stop in time. He stopped about thirty feet away and helped Mr. Putt and Irvin Hilkert carry Mrs. Putt into her home.

Mrs. Ella DePew, daughter of Mrs. Putt, testified that she had left her home across the street from the Putt residence and was on her porch when she heard a crash. She ran to the road to see what had happened and found the lifeless body of her mother in the highway. Mrs. Putt's skull had been fractured, her chest crushed and a leg broken.

Mr. Putt and Irvin Hilkert told the coroner of being called to the scene and helping to carry Mrs. Putt into the house. Hilkert is Mrs. DePew's son-in-law.

Alcie Freeze, Garrett police officer, testified that Fluke is a slow driver and mentally and physically efficient. He gave the opinion that Fluke was driving twenty to twenty-five miles an hour and that he did not see Mrs. Putt until it was too late to avoid striking her.

"An unavoidable accident" is the verdict of the coroner.

WM. F. PUTT SUES PHILIP FLUKE FOR $10,000 DAMAGES

Blames Him for Fatal Auto Accident

A consequence of the tragedy that took place on North Randolph street in Garrett the night of last March 26 when Mrs. Minnie May Putt was struck and killed by an automobile driven by Philip K. Fluke of northwest of Garrett, was the filing of a complaint for $10,000 damages by Wm. F. Putt in the DeKalb circuit court Tuesday.

Mrs. Putt was crossing highway 27 in going from her own home to that of a daughter, Mrs. Elmer DePew, when the defendant was driving into the city from the north. His machine hit her and rolled her along the pavement.

The complaint declares that the defendant was operating his machine without lights and at a dangerous speed, without regard for the safety of pedestrians. It states also that Mrs. Putt had reached a point within three feet of the west line of the highway when the accident took place; that Mrs. Putt was carried 175 feet by the car and that the driver could not get his machine stopped until he had traveled 200 feet.

The plaintiff sets out that he was required to meet an expense of $600 for hospitalization and the funeral of his wife; that he lost her companionship and aid and that her death left no one in the home to care for a six year old grandson.

Atkinson & Sanders are the plaintiff's attorneys.

APPROACHING MARRIAGE OF YOUNG COUPLE IS ANNOUNCED

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Lourelei DePew, daughter of Mrs. Ella DePew of North Randolph street, Garrett, and Irvin Hilkert of Auburn, was announced at a party of lovely appointments at the home of the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. Douglas Putt, on North Randolph street, Garrett, Monday evening. The guests formed three tables at bunco. A lunch was served in two courses at the card tables and each place was marked by the shell of an English walnut that was tied with a red ribbon. A tiny card was hidden in the shell and on it was written "Lourelei and Irvin Dec. 25." Holiday decorations prevailed in the appointments. Prizes were won by Mrs. Virgil Hazeltine and Mrs. Walter Sebert, who in turn presented them to Miss DePew. The other guests were the Misses Lucile Cook, Opal Olinger, Rosella Karr, Dorcas Roseman, June Downend, Violet Miller, Velma Diederich and Kathryn Barrington and Mrs. DePew, all of Garrett.

Mr. Hilkert is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hilkert of south of Auburn.

IRVIN HILKERT AND MISS LOURELEI DE PEW MARRIED

The wedding of Miss Lourelei DePew, daughter of Mrs. Ella DePew of North Randolph street, Garrett and Irvin Hilkert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hilkert of south of Auburn, took place in a quiet ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends at the Garrett Methodist Episcopal church Christmas day at high noon. The Rev. B. H. Franklin officiated and the attendants were Franklin Quinn, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Dorcas Roseman, both of Garrett.

The bride wore a frock of light green crepe with brown accessories and a rhinestone head band. Her flowers were a corsage of bridal roses and babybreath. Miss Roseman was attired in a rose colored dress with her footwear and hat of black. She also wore a shoulder corsage of sweetpeas and babybreath. During the ceremony Mrs. Franklin presided at the organ.

A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's aunt Mrs. Charles Quinn on North Randolph street, covers being laid for eight. The tables was centered with a three tiered wedding cake and tapers in gold holders were used. The decorations were in keeping with the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilkert left late in the afternoon for a honeymoon trip, keeping their destination a secret. Mrs. Hilkert wore an ensemble of rust and green.

The bride was a member of the 1936 graduating class of Garrett high school. She and her husband will make their home for the present with the bride's mother. Mr. Hilkert is employed as a mechanic by the Auburn Rubber Corp.

George York Schick married Bessie Dale Schick and they ~~are~~ are buried at Kimmell, Ind and their names plus their 3 children who died in infancy and a son who died when he was 26 and my mother. So out of that marriage came my mother ~~Edda~~ Edda Elmeda Schick.

You Know the Putt side of the family so out of the William F. Putt and Minnie Harvey marriage came Douglas Andrew Putt, Senior. married Edda Elmeda Schick and out of that marriage, as short as it was, came Douglas Andrew Putt, Jr.

As far as my great grandparents on my mothers side I have no idea. I tried to quiz my mother and I could tell I was confusing her.

I was raised mainly by my grandparents. I was raised in Chicago.

When I was born my grandmother was a very hateful person. My dad wanted to me to Garrett to live. Not strictly fr financial point of view, I underst you see he was paying support

~~Per~~ Doug Pitt Jr. 7-30-1991

Conversation pulled from cassette tape on 7-30-91 - Between Doug Pitt Jr, his niece by Jo Pitt Kolber, nephew Jerry Pitt and Sister-in-law Jo Pitt (at her home Angola, In.)

Greatgrandmother Sarah - my Aunt doesnot remember her grandmothers maiden name. Elmer Mullin married Sarah. Lived in Cromwell. IN. Sarah died probably 1942 she was 90 and he died in the 20's, he died very early in life. They are buried at Kimmels IN, I think.

Out of the marriage of Elmer Mullin and Sarah came Bessie Dale Mullin my grandmother On my grandfathers side we don't know the name - his name in Germany was Von Schick as I understand it he came from the upper class he was a merchant of some sort and my Aunt doesn't remember the city but she thinks it was near Dusseldorf. He married Greta Duddorf we we understand came from a very poor family. Out of the marriage was 4 girls and 3 boys. A daughter was born first then my grandfather George York Schick. When my great grandfather came to this country he wanted to be an American so he dropped the Von and just became Schick. Out of the Von Schick and Greta Duddorf marriage came Gorge York Schick which was my grandfather.

S.O. Redman was a stockholder in the Garrett Country Club in 1917. S.O. Redman was a director in the Garrett Country club in 1936. Edna Redman was vice president of the Athena Club at the time of her death. He retired in 1964 after 45 years on the B & O Railroad as a master mechanic. He was a member of the Garrett Eagles, Fort Wayne American Legion and Angola VFW. Shirley and Loretta were married at the United methodist church in Garrett ½ hr after his daughter Mary Jo and Donald Pitt were married. S.O. was born on a farm South-east of Bremen, IN. S.O. was a great fisherman. Would think nothing of driving 2 hrs to get to a lake to fish for 1 or 2 hrs then come home. He also hunted. He was a good carpenter which he learned as a youth from his father. S.O. was a good card player and a good dancer.

Edna Van Fleit graduated from Garrett, IN in 1915. Her sister told me there was talk that her father's mother decended from Henry Ward Beecher and Harriet Beecher Stowe. That has not been verified. Edna attended Tri State college in Angola, obtained a teaching certificate and taught for 10 yrs. She taught at Dutchtown school (no longer there - was on west side of Garrett) a 2 room school house with 4 grades in each room. She taught 1 thru 4 and Sam Cook taught 5 thru 8. After that she was a substitute teacher for the Garrett Schools. She also taught at the Sugar Grove Southeast of Garrett and Altona school. She was a member of the Mary Martha Sunday school class and the Phoebe circle of the church; the Twentieth Century Club, Thursday afternoon bridge club. Saturday night dinner - bridge club and Tri Kappa sorority.

As told to Edna's daughter Mary Jo by S.O. Redman

Graduated from high school 1915

Putt-Redman Nuptials at Methodist Church Followed by Redman-McClintock Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Mary Josephine Redman, daughter of Shirley Otho Redman of 125½ East King street, Garrett, to Donald Earl Putt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Andrew Putt of North Randolph street extended, Garrett, took place in the Garrett Methodist church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the presence of several relatives and friends.

Following the Putt-Redman nuptials in half an hour, the bride's father and Mrs. Loretta McClintock of Dallas street, Auburn, took their places before the same altar and were married. The bride is deputy county clerk.

The Rev. Carl G. Adams, pastor of the Simpson Methodist church in Fort Wayne and a former pastor of the Garrett church, read the nuptial vows for the first ceremony using the double ring ritual, and the Rev. W. Earl Pittenger, pastor of the Garrett church, offered prayer. Mrs. Harry B. Hill, organist, presented a musicale while the guests were arriving and used the traditional wedding marches as a processional and recessional.

The chancel was decorated with a profusion of spring flowers that formed a pretty background for the wedding party. Miss Elizabeth Miller of Crawfordsville, a classmate of Miss Redman at Indiana university, was the bride's only attendant and Robert E. Kruse of Tiffin, O., served his nephew as best man. Jack Barnes of Garrett and Donald Seavers of Auburn ushered.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a two-piece street length frock. The neckline had a trim of lacy frills, which also formed a cuff on the long tight-fitted sleeves. Her hat and gloves were white and she wore brown footwear. She carried a corsage of bride's roses.

Miss Miller was attired in a brown dressmaker suit with matching accessories and her flowers were an arrangements of spring flowers.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the groom's parents. The bride's three-tiered wedding cake arranged on a bed of smilax was placed at one end of the table which was also decorated with flowers and lighted tapers. Miss Elizabeth VanFleit of Garrett, a cousin of the bride, presided at the refreshment table and two other cousins, the Misses Katharine and Maryruth VanFleit of Garrett, and the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert Sweitzer of Bethesda, Md., assisted with the serving.

Later in the day the young couple left for a honeymoon trip, the bride traveling in a brown suit with accessories to match. When they return to Garrett they will be at home in an apartment at 125½ East King street. The bride, a graduate of Washington, Ind., high school, attended Indiana university for two years. The groom was a member of the 1942 class of Garrett high school and also attended Indiana university. He is now employed in the methods and standards department of the Magnavox Corporation in Fort Wayne.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception besides those mentioned included Mr. and Mrs. William Kruse of Tiffin, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Miller, Mrs. Wm. C. Miller, Jr., Mrs. Ella DePew and son, Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Collis Putt and Mrs. Carl G. Adams, all of Fort Wayne.

Some of the people who attended the Putt-Redman ceremony returned to witness the marriage of Mr. Redman and Mrs. McClintock. Rev. Adams, officiated.

The bride and groom left for a brief trip and they will reside in the bride's home.

Mr. Redman is an employe of the maintenance of way department of the B. & O.

A surprise party was given on Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beeber, who were recently married, at their home in Garrett at 1114 South Cowen street Thursday evening. Mrs. Beeber is the deputy county treasurer. A potluck supper was served and Mr. and Mrs. Beeber were presented with an occasional table. Those in the group were Mrs. Ella Johnson, Mrs. Loretta McClintock, Miss Harriet Yarian, Miss Neva Beaty, Miss Mildred Grant, U. S. Raut, Miss Mary Brandon, Miss Thelma Grosh, Miss Tillie Lumm, Wm. Goe, Wm. Stonebraker, Miss Lois Sellers, Miss Inez Knapp and Miss Maurine Smith, all of Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Waterman and Miss Mary Lu Klinger of Waterloo, Miss Helen Huntsman of Albion, and the Misses Catherine Johnson and Ursula VanDerbosch of Garrett.

GARRETT FIREMEN AND TRUCK SAVE BUILDINGS AT AUBURN

Made a Record Run and Demonstrated the Value of Modern Equipment.

A fire loss of $12,000 resulted when the Howey & Osborn garage and the Coliseum on East Ninth street in Auburn were destroyed Friday morning. The Garrett fire department was a factor in keeping the damage down, preventing the destruction of neighboring buildings.

The origin of the fire is unknown. Earl Summers, a youth employed in the garage, was the only person in the building and he says the blaze started in the center of the structure, but he did not know the cause. He turned in the alarm, but when the Auburn department arrived the building was enveloped in flames. Summers and men who quickly arrived managed to roll out a motorcycle and three automobiles from the garage. An Overland car belonging to Paul Gugeli of Auburn was destroyed.

The Auburn department could make no headway because of insufficient water pressure and it had no equipment to take the water from the nearby creek. Calls were sent to Garrett and Kendallville and both departments responded at once.

Blaze Made Herald Progress.

The flames, fanned by a strong wind, spread to the Coliseum and then the Auburn department turned its attention to saving the frame business buildings on the south side of the street. Wind carried burning boards 40 rods, or a block away.

The Garrett department, with the big truck driven by Hal Stoner, made a hasty trip to Auburn and soon was using water from the creek, playing a strong stream on the fire. Chief A. W. Beehler directed the work and succeeded in saving the nearby buildings from destruction. Had the Garrett department arrived twenty minutes sooner it is believed the Coliseum could have been saved. The department pumped water for nearly an hour and its effective work was appreciated by the Auburn people.

A freak of the fire was the explosion of a Presto-Lite tank in the garage. It exploded and shot at lightning speed across the street, crashing through the plate glass window in the Fox lunch room and narrowly missing three men on the way.

John Groscop owned the Coliseum and he places his loss at $8,000, with $3,500 insurance. George Weaver owned the garage building.

The fire clearly demonstrated the need of better fire protection for Auburn and plans are under way to modernize the equipment.

(From Auburn Star)

That the city of Auburn apparently has enough water in the mains to fight a fire and provide adequate protection if it had means to provide the pressure, was shown Sunday when the

THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD RYLIE PUTT KILLED BY HORSE'S KICK

Was Leading Animal to Water When Blow From Hoof Fractured His Skull.

Rylie Putt, aged thirteen years, son of Mr and Mrs. E. H. Putt, was found dying in the yard in the rear of the family home on North Randolph street Thursday morning.

Rylie had been kicked by a horse and he died within a short time. The circumstances of the tragedy were explained at the inquest held by Coroner William E. Byers.

Mrs. Emma Putt testified that the boy went to the barn of his own accord to water the horse, as it was part of his usual morning work. He was gone quite a while, and Mrs. Putt went to the kitchen door and called him, but there was no answer. Then she went to the well and found Rylie lying on the ground. As she reached him she saw that he had met with an accident. There was blood on his forehead and he just took a few short breaths and was gone.

Mrs. Putt ran across the street to the William Martz home for help. Rylie was carried into the house. His clothes were soiled and blood was running from his forehead. The accident took place at 8:30 o'clock. The horse was gone and was found north of Garrett.

William Martz said the horse was a high-spirited one and as nearly as Mr. Martz can see, the horse did some jumping and a hoof struck the boy in the forehead. One cork punctured the boy's head, killing him almost instantly. He just made a few gasps when Mr. Martz picked him up.

Mrs. Addie L. Martz told of helping to carry the lifeless body to the house.

Rylie was born at Helmer and came with his parents to Garrett in 1910. He leaves besides his parents a sister, Mamie Hazel, and other relatives.

The funeral was held at the home Saturday afternoon, the Rev. C. H. Schenck officiating. Interment was made at Sixteen cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Putt and little daughter wish to thank the neighbors and friends for the beautiful flowers and the kindness extended to them in the death of their little son and brother. Your kindness will never be forgotten.
